This is an ID meeting which is open to anyone who wishes to get sober and stay sober, particularly those who are atheist, agnostic or not sure what they believe! We share our stories of what we used to be like, what happened and what we are like now. By doing this we share our experience, strength and hope with each other in order to stay sober and gain ongoing recovery. We do not endorse or oppose any system of belief. We support one another in fellowship, and encourage freedom of expression and thought. All are welcome.

Little Bay Sunday /Women,

Jarrah House 1430 Anzac Parade, Little Bay NSW 2036, Australia, Ring the front doorbell and staff will let you in and direct you to meeting

In-person meeting has resumed as of Sunday 28 Nov 2021 The Jarrah House is a rehabilitation centre for women facing alcohol, drug and other addictions. We invite all female AA members to join us on Sunday night 6-7 pm at Jarrah House in Little Bay (between Maroubra and La Perouse). We host this meeting as a typical Daily Reflection meeting. This is the only AA meeting that the Jarrah House women experience. The women learn a lot from your sobriety story. We also learn a lot from them as newcomers. There is plenty of parking and all buses going to La Perouse take you directly there.
